Nikkei.com is a service ("Service") providing electronic news and information from Nikkei Inc. ("Nikkei"). The subscriber ("Subscriber") to this Service agrees to be bound by all terms of this agreement. Nikkei reserves the right to change, suspend or discontinue any part of this Service, to impose limits on certain features and to restrict access to any or all features without notice.

1.Changes to the Subscription Agreement

1.1 Nikkei reserves the right to change, at its sole discretion, the terms of the subscription agreement. Subscribers will be informed of any such change by e-mail or by posting of notifications on the Service.

1.2 Subscribers who find any changes of the subscription agreement unacceptable may cancel their subscriptions by sending e-mail to Nikkei.com (receipt of which must be confirmed by an e-mail reply from us). However, all payments are nonrefundable. Should the Subscriber take no action for two weeks following notification of changes in the agreement, it will constitute their acceptance of those changes.

2.Your Account and Terms of Use

2.1 On registration, you must provide Nikkei with accurate, complete registration information and it is your responsibility to update and maintain changes to that information on the Nikkei.com Account Details pages.

2.2 Each account is for a single user (the Subscriber) only. Nikkei does not permit the sharing of an account or access through a single account being made available to multiple users within an organization or network. Nikkei reserves the right to cancel the access of any Subscriber who allows use of his/her account by a third party.

2.3 The Subscriber is solely responsible for all use of Nikkei.com made by their account and for maintaining the confidentiality of the account password. If you provide someone else with access to your password, they will have the ability to view and make changes to your account and subscription plans, and you may be billed accordingly. If you believe there has been any breach of security such as the disclosure, theft or unauthorized use of your account or any payment details, you must notify Nikkei immediately.

2.4 You agree to notify Nikkei promptly if you change your e-mail address or contact details so we can continue to contact you and send any subscription related notices required. If you fail to notify us of a change, then any notice we send to your old e-mail address shall be deemed sufficient notice.

3.Fees and Automatic Subscription Renewals

3.1 The Subscriber must agree to pay, and is solely responsible for, all subscription fees and any other charges in connection with their Nikkei.com account (including any applicable taxes) at the rates applicable at that time. Subscription fees will be billed at the beginning of the subscription period or with your automatic subscription renewal. The Subscriber is responsible for notifying Nikkei of any change in credit card validity or expiration date.

3.2 Fees for new group registrations and any accounts added to the group begin on the first day of the month after registration.

3.3 Subscriptions are automatically renewed unless the Subscriber notifies Nikkei of a cancellation by telephone, mail, or e-mail (receipt of which must be confirmed by e-mail reply from us) no later than the 14th day of the final month of the subscription period.

14th day of the final month of the subscription period. We will send two renewal reminder notifications via e-mail in the month prior to the renewal. All subscription fees and other required payments will be billed to the Subscriber upon automatic renewal of the subscription at the rates applicable at that time.

3.4 If your subscription includes access to areas containing premium content, your access to such areas may be subject to additional fees, terms and conditions, which will be separately disclosed in such areas.

3.5 Nikkei reserves the right to terminate or suspend any subscription if any part of the subscription fee should not be received by Nikkei for any reason, including, but not limited to fault on the part of credit card companies.

3.6 Nikkei reserves the right to change fees and/or payment terms upon advance notice. The changes apply to new subscriptions and renewals after notification.

3.7 The Subscriber is responsible for all fees and charges required to access the Service via Internet service providers or other third parties.

4. Privacy of User Information

4.1 The information you provide to Nikkei.com is used for establishing, processing, validating, and billing your Subscription, customer support, provision of online receipts and other administrative duties related to account maintenance and management.
